

PRESS RELEASE

TRESCAL, PARTNER OF THE AERONAUTICS AND SPACE INDUSTRY, TO TAKE PART IN THE 2017 INTERNATIONAL PARIS AIR SHOW

Paris, June 7th 2017

Trescal continues to strengthen its position at the heart of the aerospace and defence markets through new and existing partnerships. Servicing a number of long-term contracts, the business segment represents approximately 50 per cent of Trescal Group sales – highlighting the importance of the Paris Air Show.

Thanks to its global "One-Stop-Shop" offering in calibration services and its proven expertise in calibration management, the Group is able to guarantee a high level of quality and consolidate its unmatched position in the global market.

Trescal group participates in numerous aeronautical trade shows around the world (Bourget, Farnborough, Berlin, Marrakech, Singapore) and participates in many of the shows with its Starduster SA300 Trescal biplane.

Returning from its partnership mission with the Patrouille de France in the USA and Canada, the Trescal plane will once again take to the skies at the Paris Show, performing aerobatic demonstrations during the air show.

Trescal pursues its strategy of supporting its clients where they are established through acquisitions, industrial investments and the creation of new laboratories in Europe, North America, Latin America and Asia.

For industrial players in the aeronautics sector, Trescal wants to be a true partner capable of providing programmes for their international projects.

Trescal will be present at the Paris Air Show June 19-25, 2017: Hall 2B - Stand E 155
